

FIDIC Seminar

REGISTRATION FORM

The Jamaica Institution of Engineers

Local Development in a Global Perspective

A one day seminar highlighting the role and importance of the FIDIC contract in the development of infrastructure in Jamaica and the wider Caribbean. The seminar will explore the applicability and important usage considerations of the FIDIC contract and its implications to all the relevant stakeholders. It will also provide an opportunity to assess the suitability of the FIDIC contract in the Caribbean environment and how Caribbean professionals can assist with development of same. We view this seminar as an impetus to conducting new workshops with a view to improving contract management skills among our local professionals..
